Tanzania, We're Coming for You!

We will be heading on our annual trip to Tanzania in November, and we couldn't be more eager to see the kids. Our intern McKenzie will be joining us for the first time – this is her first time leaving North America and after two years of working with Mesha's Village, she can't wait to finally meet the kids in person!

Follow us on Instagram @meshasvillage to get trip updates and participate in our upcoming donation collections.

SPONSOR SPOTLIGHT

Mary, Michael, Sean, Victoria, and Christian

Tell us a little about your family.

I am a mother of three children. Sean (29), Victoria (28), and Christian (20). I have been married for 31 years to my husband Michael. I am a legal secretary with the law firm of Goodwin Procter and have been employed for over 36 years.

How did you hear about Mesha's Village and what made you want to sponsor through us?

I heard about Mesha's Village through a high school friend, Linda Potter. When I read her newsletter last year, I wanted to be able to help. Seeing the impact in the lives of the children they were making only made me want to contribute.

What excites you most about sponsoring a child in need?

I am thrilled to sponsor Abdul for his school years. Just knowing that someone across the globe can benefit from my sponsorship is so meaningful. Sponsoring these children can profoundly change their future and has changed my life as well.

Thank you, Plumbitis Family!
We're so thankful to have people like you on our team!

Swahili Sayings

In conversing with the children and our local friends, we have learned a bit of Swahili, the native language in Tanzania. As an organization rooted in education, we want to share some of what we have learned with you all.

"Chakula kizuri" meaning "good food"
